

Dear Japan Society of Perinatal and Neonatal Medicine,

We are pleased to inform you that the 26th World Congress on Controversies in Obstetrics, Gynecology & Infertility (COGI) will take place November 23-25, 2018 in London, UK. <http://cogi-congress.org/>

The successful and groundbreaking series of COGI Congresses provide a unique platform to discuss controversial issues in all fields of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Infertility. The 26th COGI Congress will celebrate 40 years of IVF. World renowned leaders in the field, both past and present, will review advances and breakthroughs, and make predictions for where we are heading.

We are very interested in having members of your society attend the 26th COGI Congress. Therefore, we would appreciate if you would:

- 1) Exchange logos between our websites
- 2) Place the 26th COGI Congress on your events calendar
- 3) Announce the 26th COGI Congress to your members (we would be happy to send you an e-mail shot for this)

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Ilana
